1. Commando "df" informacion de disco duro

```
To run a command as administrator (user "root"), use "sudo <command>".
See "man sudo_root" for details.
casa@hola:~$ df
S.ficheros
               bloques de 1K
                              Usados Disponibles Uso% Montado en
                      492352
                                           492352
udev
                                   0
                                                    0% /deu
tmpfs 102384
                                 3240
                                            99144
                                                    4% /run
                                          7299112
                     9204224 1414516
                                                   17% /
/dev/sda1
tmpfs 511904
                                           511904
                                                    0% /dev/shm
                                   0
                        5120
                                             5120
                                   0
                                                    0% /run/lock tmpfs 511904
                                    0 tmpfs 511904
                                                    0% /sus/fs/cgroup
                      102384
                                    0
                                                    0% /run/user/1000
tmpfs 102384
casa@hola:~$
                                                             🛐 💿 🕮 🗗 🥟 🥅 🔲 🚰 🔯 🚫 🚺 Right Ctrl 🔒
```

2. Comando "top" Administrador de tarea

3. Comando "poweroff" Apagar la maquina virtual